

Applicability

The University System of Georgia Ethics Policy applies to all members of the University System of Georgia community.

The University System of Georgia community includes:

- All members of the Board of Regents
- All members employed by the University System of Georgia

As well as those acting on behalf of the University System of Georgia or one of the University System of Georgia institutions, including:

- Volunteers
- Vendors
- Contractors
- Members of the governing boards and
- Employees of all cooperative organizations affiliated with the University System of Georgia or one of its institutions.

All members of the university system should be aware that violations of the University System of Georgia Ethics Policy may result in disciplinary action, including dismissal or termination. Certification of your compliance with the University System of Georgia Ethics Policy is required on a periodic basis.